Fairyland of Bologna Illustration

Philosophy of art :
 A great illustrator friend of mine, Eva Montanari told me that she reach the 80% of which she has in mind. I was shocked, in my case I overpass always my expectations, correction, I really HAVE to overpass my expectation, to have some fun, to surprise myself , otherwise I don't enjoy illustration. I 'd like to add as an anecdote that I always drew birds and windows on my very first illustrations, and a teacher told me that I was needing a lot of freedom, now I think I have more of that freedom, but the birds still are there...
